"THE RACING KID"

Buddy is the mischievous but worthy son of a race horse owner. He is an admirer of Martha, the daughter of a neighbor. She and "Spec" and Buddy are the best of chums.

They have many exciting days around the old farm where the race horses are groomed. Buddy suspects one of the men to be crooked and watches him and a well known crooked gambler in close conferences. He tells his father of his suspicions the day of the big race, but his father scoffs at him. However, Buddy waylays the crooked rider and with the aid of Martha and "Spec" the big race is won by Buddy, who rides the old horse.

There is much rejoicing and the "racing kid" comes into his own.
